Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

I am a dedicated artist (ShadedAreas.com) and aspiring psychologist living in the Boston, MA area. I've been providing artistic and creative services professionally since 2006 and am currently also a full time student of psychology focusing on a forensic perspective and researching domestic violence patterns.

Professionally speaking I'm insightful, coherent and reliable. Personally speaking my core values are competence, integrity & rationality. I love what I do and I feel I'm quite good at it. If you think you might be able to make good use of my skills... don't be shy about inquiring.
