Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

I'm a commercial photographer who shoots portraits. I'm focusing on model photography, actors headshots and corporate headshots. ideally, I'd shoot fine art photography if I could find a way of making a living off it since I come from a background of visual arts, including drawing and painting. I have a studio in takoma park, washington dc, where I shoot anything from modeling pictures, acting headshots and executive portraits. I also take pictures of products and accessories.
