Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
Sam Oster is a photo-media artist working across a range of creative and commercial applications. She runs a photographic studio Silvertrace at the 'Cog Creative Space' in Norwood (South Australia) specialising in photography for the creative industries of film & television, theatre, dance and the visual arts. Sam exhibits regularly in group and solo shows. She was invited to exhibit in the core program of the Ballarat International Foto Biennale in 2009, where she showed both still and moving-image work alongside International and Australian artists. Her work was featured on the cover of the Art Almanac in June 2010. Sam also lectures in photography at the Centre for Creative Photography. She also produces moving-image work as an extension of her arts practice.

Previous Clientele
Across a 13-year career as a stills photographer in the film and entertainment industries, Sam has worked on a range of feature films, tv series, short films and documentaries, photographing well known personalities like Natalie Imbruglia, Hugo Weaving, Rachel Ward and Toni Collette. Sam also works in theatre and dance, producing a range of commissioned work for the creative arts industry. Her recent South Australian performing Arts clients include Ausdance SA, Restless Dance Theatre, Ladykillers, Flugle Theatre Company, Windmill Performing Arts, Carclew, Unreasonable Adults, Beat Company, and many independent artists. Sam does actor's headshots, portraits, key art for posters and publicity campaigns, and has worked with many magazines, including SA Life Magazine and Inside Film Magazine. Commercial clients include Arkajon Communications, Fusion, and The Jam Factory.
