Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
Zhi Lee is known in the Auckland photography circle for bold perspectives and pushing the boundaries of traditional photography. Zhi's passion for capturing the story within a story and breaking the rules shows in his work, primarily consisting of portraits, events, weddings and creative photography.

A ex-committee member of the Howick Camera Club, Zhi loves working with people from all walks of life. Zhi also leads the Auckland Facebook Photography Club. An adrenalin junkie, it is not uncommon to find Zhi taking photos swinging from a rope.

Zhi specialises in people photography and established SnapMe Photography in 2010. Always keen to contribute to photography in New Zealand, Zhi has been largely involved in TFI shoots for models requiring portfolio images.
