Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
SHINGO SHIMIZU is a graduate of the Ontario College of Art and Design's Communication and Design program. The Montreal-born, Toronto-bred designer was exposed to drawing at an early age through his father's graphic design work. After many successful years working as a full-time designer, Shimizu pursued to work independently, to follow his passion, Illustration. His vector-based style echoes visual cues derived from pop art to Manga to his latest obsessions.

He has been profiled in Vektorika's 'Greatest Hits' issue, with work featured in Fast Company and Popular Mechanics magazines. Shimizu has also been recognized by The Advertising and Design Club of Canada and American Illustration.
