Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Stella Guan is an award-winning visual designer with experience spanning across multiple disciplines and industries. Started her career in broadcast design, Stella has been pushing the boundaries between the specialist and generalist role with her diverse experience in creating effective visual solutions for marketing agencies, advertising agencies, technology companies and global financial services firms.

She is a winner of the 2017-2018 A' Design Award in Web and Web Design Category, 2018 American Web Design Award by GDUSA Magazine and CSS Design Awards.

Currently, she leads major brand initiatives for J.P. Morgan, where she directs and creates impactful visual design for interactive webpages, videos, animations and brand guidelines. She is a proud member of the Academy of Interactive & Visual Arts and the International Association of Designers. She also served as a judge for the A' Design Award, CSS Design Awards, Communicator Awards, W3 Award, Creativity International Awards, MediaPost OMMA Awards and the Stevie Award.
