Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Then uses bold colors and imagery to create paintings that are a visual manifestation of his feelings as well as the world that surrounds him. Starting with graffiti as a youth Then began to create large paintings with bright colors that lined the concrete walls of city he lived in. After years of painting graffiti Then began to seek other creative outlets which led him to study Communications Design at Pratt Institute in Brooklyn New York. Being completely immersed in art and design gave Then a new outlook on his creative process as well as different platforms to create on. Then has worked with many companies using his style and technique to bring life and brand projects with one of a kind designs.
