Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Tobi Asmoucha is a photographer based out of Toronto, who does a mix of commercial and editorial photography, along with private commissions primarily on location. Her images explore themes of community and the rituals that bind them. She has been working as a freelance photographer since 1992, with images appearing in publications such as Canadian Geographic. Her documentary work has received a National Magazine Award and many nominations, as well as Ontario Arts Council, and Toronto Jewish Arts Council grants. Along with her photographic practice Asmoucha teaches photography at the Haliburton School of Art, and Gallery 44. Currently Asmoucha is a core member of PhotoSensitive, with her work in collections at MOCCA and the Canadian War Museum.
