Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
Tom Hanslien is always dedicated to fulfill any brief. He has a problem-solving approach, a very keen eye, and an excellent understanding of composition. This, coupled with an in-depth knowledge of post production, and the following process of design and artwork, ensures he can exceed expectations. Tom always prides himself in delivering a finished product on schedule and on budget.
Tom also enjoys a big love for travelling, which not only takes him around the world – with many great new images as a result - but it is also a continuing source of inspiration which influences and feeds his passion for photography.
