Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Agency profile | More sustainable Design

After more than a decade of experience in creating shapes, spaces, messages and signs we came to a point in which we realized that a totem always has different meanings to different people. We try to give it gesture - try to name it.

Disciplines of our design agency;
Architecture, interior design, product design, graphic design, brand development, content research & project management.

Our working area is broad;
Trade shows, museum exhibitions, events, world expo pavilions, information centres, showrooms and retail interiors. We offer full-service and project management, we manage the total project from the first sketch until realization.

Sustainability goals Totems;
In addition to a beautiful and intelligent design, it is our goal to make your projects more sustainable.
During the briefing stage we are thinking about how we can implement your design and what materials + services are suitable for the long term - in a sustainable way. The difference between a sustainable and a 'traditional' approach, we make it transparent for you.

Sustainable Partners;
To achieve our goal, it is absolutely necessary that we work only with companies that actually have an official certification that they are able to produce sustainable. We have the perfect network for this!
