Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Cambridgeshire and Peterborough photographer, Terry provides stunning examples of editorial photography for both corporate business and press publications. Terry can provide direct access to your images though a state of the art website as well as Syndicate through press agencies, giving your images a global audience.

Terry has a simple aim, to produce photos with impact for PR and media press releases, on websites, in annual reports, brochures and for marketing materials. Whether in Peterborough, London, Manchester or further away, Terry, as a photographer, can cover your press and PR image needs including, photo-calls, photo-journalistic reportage, conferences and official product launches.

Having considerable experience as a photographer working with politicians, celebrities, royalty & business leaders means that Terry is able to work with all types of people and provide both a professional and courteous service at all times, regardless of the subject.

Terry has been published in most of the UK national papers, if not all and published around the world in books, posters, magazines and just about anywhere that needs a picture.
