Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
Vicky has been freelancing full time since 2011 producing stylised illustrations typically in fashion, products, accessories and advertising.

Previous to becoming a freelance illustrator, Vicky interned at Alexander McQueen where she learnt about the importance and impact of illustration in the design industry. Since then, she has been working with some interesting clients always learning and pushing boundaries with each piece.

The beauty of the world wide web has culminated in worldwide opportunities, and as a result, she has taken on the Asian market, whilst still managing new and existing clients from London to LA, she has moved to Taiwan for a year. Working from her studio with the beautiful sites, delectable tastes and buzzing culture for inspiration.
?A freelance artist, illustrator and designer, Vicky is committed to working with clients to produce excellent commissions, editorials or collaborations on a limitless parameter of concepts.
