Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae
Viñas & DeLuca, PLLC is a Miami personal injury law firm headed by Francisco Vinas and Jarrett DeLuca. Our firm handles personal injury and wrongful death matters throughout Florida, with offices in Miami, Palm Beach, and Tampa.

As with all legal matters, it is best to contact an attorney as soon as possible to help assure your legal rights are protected. Under Florida law, actions for personal injury or wrongful death may only be brought within a certain timeframe. If you are considering filing a personal injury or wrongful death action, our lawyers in Miami, Palm Beach, and Tampa can help.

Contact us if you or someone you know has suffered an injury, death, or financial loss due to the negligent or wrongful conduct of others. Our firm handles person injury claims related to medical malpractice, dangerous products, automobile defects, car and truck accidents, and all forms of personal injury matters resulting in significant injury or death.

Previous Clientele
Do You Have a Personal Injury Case?

Our firm would be happy to discuss this question with you. While not all injuries give rise to a legal claim, many do where the injury or loss was caused in part by another’s negligence. To know whether you have a case, you should always consult a legal professional. Our attorneys are here to help and we invite you to contact us anytime for a free case evaluation. One of our attorneys will be happy to speak with you.

Research Shows Medical Errors Third Leading Cause of Death in the United States

“Big Medicine” is a multi-trillion-dollar industry in the United States. Many hospital chains rake in millions of dollars each year marketing their services on TV, billboards, radio, and other media. The medical community in South Florida is no different. We’ve all seen the advertisements. When it comes to hospitals, however, patient safety may not be rising quite as fast as profits.
