Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

"...real stories from real lives..."

Brian Hill Film and Design is a small creative business based in the Highlands which works with community groups, small business, the voluntary and public sectors, tourism, heritage, and the arts to create video/DVD, graphic design, web sites, displays and exhibition.

Film and Design also provide photographic services, event management and support, presentation IT.

Design and film-making are really forms of story-telling and performance. But most important of all is helping people say what they want to say. Whatever the message, it's always about people
