Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Born and raised in Beckenham, Kent, Zoe spent her childhood surrounded by a loving family of talented artists and musicians gifting her with a valuable exposure to art at an early age.

Together with her passion for art and her raw design and drawing talent, Zoe went on to study fine art and sculpture at The Chelsea College of Art.

Zoe had the honor of mentoring under the late Euan Uglow who's wonderfully eccentric lifestyle instilled in Zoe a creative discipline which she has mastered throughout her career.

In 1996, after working as an artist in France, Spain and Italy, Zoe held her first exhibition entitled "Landscapes" at the Oxshot Gallery in Surrey. This led to an invitation to teach at the Webster Gallery in Oxshot where she continued to gain further experience as an artist and PA Director.

She was later invited to teach, paint and lecture at Mossimans of London and also had the opportunity to model of Ged Melling. Zoe has also worked as an artist in Miami, Florida.

Zoe's influences are wide and varied and her quest for her own identity has continued over many years. Her extensive travels influence her choice of subject and she has developed her own style influenced by impressionism which she was introduced to by Euan Uglow.

Zoe continues to live and work in London, exhibiting her work on a regular basis.

Previous Clientele

Zoe has worked with and modeled for the last impressionist, Euan Uglow.

She has also worked as an artist and PA to the Director at The Webster Gallery.

She has taught, lectured and painted for Mossimans of London.

She has been an artist model for Ged Melling.

She has completed commissioned work for Graphic Works, London and numerous private collectors mainly from London and Miami.
