Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

I am a gardener of the imagination, an unrealistic illustrator, book-cover designer & affichiste.

I'm an Italian illustrator with a strong background in graphic design. I've been working in communication for over 15 years, during which I've been involved in editorial, publisher and corporate assignments.

I do a lot of illustrations for companies, newspapers and magazines, websites (for ex. headers), musical bands, festival; I also project a lot of posters and book covers, mixing hand lettering, graphic and illustrations.

When I do illustrations I don't like realism, instead I love their funny and imaginative side.
